

Young Leader Travel Grant for CCNZ National Conference

CCNZ Auckland Branch would like to provide travel grants for up to three young and promising leaders working within the civil construction sector, to attend the CCNZ National Conference in Invercargill from 14-16 August 2024.

The branch will fund the conference fee, return airfare, accommodation and provide an $80 daily meal allowance to attend.

Nominating businesses are expected to cover their candidate's wages during the conference period. Interested businesses can nominate a single candidate from their branch region and must be a current financial Contractor member of CCNZ.

Nominees should be aged between 18 and 30 years old at the time of application. Applicants who have completed or are engaged in an Industry Qualification, in particular, Civil Trades, would be viewed upon favourably. This is open to Contractor members only.

The process

- Complete and return the Young Leader Travel Grant for CCNZ National Conference - Nomination Form by 5pm, Thursday 16 May 2024. Nomination form to be emailed to aucklandevents@civilcontractors.co.nz
- The Auckland Young Contractors Subcommittee will review all applicants and select the successful candidates to travel to conference.
- Short online interviews may be conducted as part of the selection process.
