

Biography – Kylie Bourke

Kylie Bourke is a Project Manager with North Drill Ltd and has more than 26 years of experience in civil construction, infrastructure delivery, and contract management across Auckland and Northland. Throughout her career, she has held senior leadership roles with Higgins, Downer, and Fulton Hogan, delivering major transport, maintenance, and infrastructure projects while leading multidisciplinary teams and managing complex stakeholder relationships.

Kylie recently completed two consecutive terms as Chair of the CCNZ Northland Branch, serving four years advocating for members and supporting industry development. She is passionate about the future of the civil construction sector and is committed to promoting strong leadership, workforce development, diversity, safety, and collaboration across the industry.

Known for her practical, people-focused approach, Kylie is driven by a desire to see continual improvement across the sector and believes the industry achieves its best outcomes when contractors, clients, consultants, and communities work together to build a stronger future.
