

Business benefits for Major Associate Members

Connecting with New Zealand's contracting industry

Civil Contractors New Zealand (CCNZ) is the lynchpin of New Zealand's contracting industry with a highly proactive national and regional network of professional contractors and associated organisations.

As an Associate Member your business is plugged into that business community. You will have unprecedented opportunities to access exceptional networks, build your company profile, and to emphasise your professionalism, credibility and commitment to the civil contracting industry.

✓ Expand your networks

As an Associate Member, you can network with 400 civil contractors, responsible for 85 per cent of civil construction work in New Zealand. This includes:

- Opportunities to attend, host and present to branch meetings
- Invitations to all workshops, events and meetings regionally and nationally
- A key contact within CCNZ, to help you leverage maximum benefits from your membership

✓ Raise your company profile

- Associate your business with the strong CCNZ brand, including through use of our members' logo
- A warm welcome on joining or renewing, with announcements in our Civil Talk e-newsletter and Contractor magazine
- Your logo featured and support of CCNZ acknowledged on an Associate Member page in Contractor magazine three times per year
- Your logo and link to your company website, on our website
- Invitations to contribute knowledge and expertise at CCNZ functions locally and nationally
- Two slots a year in Civil Talk e-newsletter to profile your company's special promotions
- Opportunities to jointly develop targeted promotional activities with CCNZ

✓ Keep informed about industry trends and developments

- Fortnightly Civil Talk e-newsletters sent to all your key staff
- Four complimentary copies of Contractor Magazine
- Ongoing updates on the state of the industry and its future prospects
- Access to technical and specialist advice on contractor issues, from our expert team

✓ Save your business money

- The complimentary n3 discount savings scheme for your staff and your business
- Z discount fuel scheme
- Annual Conference registration discounts

✓ Supporting a strong industry

A robust civil contracting industry is of benefit to everyone. As an Associate Member you will:

- Support CCNZ's work to ensure a safe, viable and progressive contracting industry
- Actively contribute to the work of CCNZ
- Be able to make nominations for the Associate Member representation on our Executive Council

✓ Sponsorship opportunities

- CCNZ Annual Conference
- National awards, events, seminars and roadshows
- Branch awards, events and meetings
- Join other major New Zealand businesses and consider CCNZ Core Associate Membership
